I'm thrilled that there are so many eco-friendly baby products available. As far as I'm concerned, my kid will be an eco baby from day one. Here are some fantastic green baby gear items that every mom should know about:

Belle Baby Carriers' latest collection includes three organic carriers (moss green, sand and black) made with a 100% organic cotton/hemp blend fabric and organic fleece lining. Plus, this must-have item positions both you and the baby in a proper ergonomic position by distributing baby's weight to your hips rather than your already overworked shoulders and back.
